Appreciation

Appreciation best expresses the mutual feeling between ourselves and customers. Our patrons have been most appreciative, as is evidenced from the increased and larger volume of business we have been favored with, and they have shown conclusively that our STANDARD OF SHOES and OUR METHODS are appreciated by them. While this has been very gratifying to us, we have endeavored to show our appreciation in return by giving BETTER VALUES AND LOWER PRICES each season, but we believe in this respect our line will appeal to you the coming season stronger than ever before, and we can truthfully state we have exceeded in STYLE, QUALITY AND PRICES any effort ever made on our grade of shoes. New features have been added throughout our entire line, and we have improved the standard to such an extent that we are confident that we have opened a wider field than ever for an increased patronage and believe we will merit the largest season business we have ever had. We should like your entire patronage on our grade of shoes. We will in return give you our best efforts and a substantial evidence of our appreciation by furnishing you the highest standard values ever produced in footwear.

Wishing you one and all A BRIGHT, HAPPY AND PROSPEROUS NEW YEAR, we are yours for good shoes.
